

Compal Electronics, Inc.

Rules and Procedures of Shareholders Meeting

Passed by the General Shareholders Meeting on April 8, 1998

1. The shareholders meeting of Compal Electronics, Inc. (the "Company") shall be conducted in accordance with these Rules and Procedures unless the law provides otherwise.
2. The Company shall prepare an attendance book for shareholders to sign in, or the shareholder present may hand in an attendance card in lieu of signing on the attendance book.

The number of shares representing shareholders present in the meeting shall be calculated in accordance with those indicated on the attendance book or the attendance cards.

3. The presence of shareholders in a shareholders meeting and their voting thereof shall be calculated in accordance with the number of shares. Resolutions shall be adopted at the shareholders meeting in accordance with the Company Act and Articles of Incorporation of the Company.
4. The place for convening a shareholders meeting for the Company shall be held inside the premises of the Company, or any other place convenient for presence of shareholders, and suitable for holding of the said meeting. The time for commencing the said meeting shall not be earlier than 9am or later than 3pm.
5. If a shareholders meeting is called by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board shall preside at the said shareholders meeting. In case the Chairman is on leave of absence, or cannot exercise his/her powers and authority, the Vice Chairman shall act in lieu of him/her. If there is no Vice Chairman, or the Vice Chairman is also on leave of absence, or cannot exercise his/her powers and authority, the Chairman shall designate a Managing Director to act in lieu of him/her; if there is no Managing Director, the Chairman shall designate a Director to act in lieu of him/her. If the Chairman does not designate a Director, the Managing Directors or Directors shall elect one from among themselves to act in lieu of the Chairman.

If a shareholders meeting is called by a person other than the Board of Directors, who has the right to call the meeting, said person shall preside at that meeting.

6. The Company may designate its lawyer, certified public accountant or other relevant persons to attend the shareholders meeting.

Persons handling affairs of meeting shall wear identification cards or arm badges.

7. The proceeding of the meeting shall be audio recorded or videotaped in its entirety and these tapes shall be kept for at least one year.

8. The chairman of the meeting shall call the meeting to order at the time scheduled for the meeting, provided, however, that if the shareholders present do not represent a majority of the total amount of issued shares, the chairman of the meeting may postpone the meeting, provided, however, that the postponement of the said meeting shall be limited to two times, and the total time postponed shall not exceed one hour. If the meeting has been postponed for two times, but the shareholders present still do not represent a majority of the total amount of issued shares, a tentative resolution may be adopted in accordance with Paragraph 1 of Article 175 of the Company Act by shareholders representing one-third of the total amount of issued shares.

Before the close of the said meeting, if the shareholders present represent a majority of the total amount of issued shares, the chairman of the meeting may present the tentative resolution so adopted to the meeting for resolution in accordance with the provisions of Article 174 of the Company Act.

9. If a shareholders meeting is called by the Board of Directors, the meeting agenda shall be set by the Board of Directors, and the meeting shall be conducted in accordance with the said agenda. The agenda shall not be changed without a resolution made by the shareholders meeting.

If a shareholders meeting shall be called by a person, other than the Board of Directors, entitled to convene such meeting, the preceding provisions shall apply mutatis mutandis to the said meeting.

The chairman of the meeting shall not adjourn a meeting without resolution adopted by shareholders if the items (including extraordinary motions) listed in the agenda so arranged in the above two Paragraphs are not completed.

After close of the said meeting, shareholders shall not elect another person to serve as chairman and continue the meeting at the same place or at any other place.

10. When a shareholder present at the meeting wishes to speak, he/she shall first fill out a slip, specifying therein the major points of his/her speech, his/her serial number as a shareholder (or number of attendance) and his/her name, and the chairman of the meeting shall determine his/her order of giving a speech.

A shareholder who submits his/her slip for a speech but does not actually speak shall be considered as not having given a speech. If the contents of his/her speech shall be different from those specified on the slip, the contents of his/her speech shall prevail.

When a shareholder is giving a speech, the other shareholders shall not interrupt unless they have obtained the prior consent from the chairman of the meeting as well as the said shareholder, and the chairman of the meeting may stop such interruption.

11. Unless otherwise permitted by the chairman of the meeting, any shareholder shall not, for each discussion item, speak more than two times and each time shall not exceed 3 minutes. However, after obtaining consent of the chairman, the length of such speech may be extended for an additional 3 minutes.

If the speech of any shareholder violates the above provisions or his/her speech exceeds the scope of the discussion item, the chairman of the meeting may stop the speech of such shareholder.

12. Any legal entity designated as proxy by a shareholder(s) to be present at the shareholders meeting may appoint only one representative to attend such meeting.

If a corporate shareholder who designates two or more representatives to represent it at the shareholders meeting, only one of the representatives so designated may speak on any one discussion item.

13. After the speech of a shareholder, the chairman of the meeting may respond himself/herself or appoint an appropriate person to respond.
14. The chairman of the meeting may announce to end the discussion of any discussion item and go into voting if the chairman considers that the discussion for a motion has reached the extent for making a resolution.
15. The persons for supervising the casting of votes and the counting thereof for resolutions shall be designated by the chairman of the meeting, provided, however, that the person supervising the casting of votes shall be a shareholder. The results of resolution(s) shall be announced in the meeting, and recorded in the meeting minutes.
16. During the meeting, the chairman of the meeting may, at his/her discretion, set time for intermission.
17. Unless otherwise specifically provided for in the Company Act or the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, resolutions shall be adopted by a majority of votes represented by the shareholders present at a meeting.

The resolution shall be deemed adopted and shall have the same effect as if it was voted by casting ballots if no objection is raised after solicitation by the chairman of the meeting.

18. If there is amendment to or substitute for one discussion item, the chairman of the meeting may combine such amendment or substitute into the original discussion item, and determine their orders for resolution. If any one of the above has been adopted, the others shall be considered as rejected, upon which no further resolution shall be required.
19. The chairman of the meeting may direct disciplinary personnel (or security personnel) to keep the order of the meeting. Such disciplinary personnel (or security personnel) shall wear badges bearing the words of "disciplinary personnel".

In order to keep the order of the meeting, shareholders shall obey directions made by the chairman of the meeting, disciplinary personnel (or security personnel). In case any person interrupts the meeting and, after being stopped by the chairman of the meeting three times, refuses to desist his/her interruption, the chairman of the meeting may ask the disciplinary personnel (or security personnel) to escort such shareholder to leave the meeting place.

20. These Rules and Procedures shall be effective from the date they are approved by the shareholders meeting. The same applies in case of amendments.
