

Remuneration Committee

The sixth remuneration committee of the Company is composed of five independent directors. Its responsibilities are to assist the Board in assessing and approving the remuneration levels of directors and managers, so that the remuneration is combined with individual and company operational performance to achieve the rationality of remuneration and attract/retain talents.

The Company's procedure of determining remuneration not only takes into account the Company's overall operational performance but also includes employee's personal performance and their contribution to the Company's performance in order to determine a reasonable compensation. Relevant salary and compensation are reviewed by the Remuneration Committee and resolved by the Board of Directors. The Company will also be keeping a close eye on the current development in the global economy, international financial environment and state of the industry in order to predict its operational development, profit status, operational risks and changes in pertinent regulations in the near future. In addition, to review the compensation system timely, thereby striving for an ideal balance between the goal of Company's sustainable operation and relevant risk management.
