

Status of communication between independent directors, internal audit supervisor and CPA

1. Method of communication between independent directors, internal audit supervisor and CPA:

- After the internal audit supervisor has submitted an audit report and follow-up report, he/she should provide the completed audited items to the independent directors for their review by the end of the following month. Should the independent directors require clarification of the audit and follow-up, they could contact the internal audit supervisor at any time. The internal auditor shall report audit results to the Audit Committee on a quarterly basis and discuss relevant matters in person with the committee.
- The independent directors must communicate with the CPA once a year through the Audit Committee or the Board of Directors Meeting. The CPA shall report to the independent directors the audit results of financial statement and other pertinent legal requirements while the Audit Committee shall also evaluate the selection, independence, and fitness of the engaged CPA.
